DAILY BLUE AND GOLD

February 6, 2012

This message is for all the seniors - inquiring minds have wanted to know... In the beginning of the school year Mrs. Sremaniak promised the senior class its very own Javaccino with Mr. Mikrut and Mr. Anderson ready to do lots of push-ups if they achieved a 93% attendance rate for first semester. Well the results are in and your attendance rate was 92.37% for first semester. Unfortunately this is short of the 93% goal that was set and Mr. Mikrut and Mr. Anderson have been very disappointed that they could not show off their skills. But here's the good news! This senior class had the highest attendance rate of the past few years for first semester. You should be proud of that fact. Thank you to those of you who worked hard to get there. And most importantly, don't give up because Mrs. Sremaniak's chocolate chip cookies are still on the table. If you beat last year's senior class attendance percentage, Mrs. Sremaniak will bake cookies for the entire senior class. So come on seniors, now is not the time for senioritis to kick in. It's time for your big finish. 2/6
